Supreme Row Judging...

where all champion bulls and heifers compete for the Supreme Title.

SUPREME ROW JUDGING RULES:

1. Each Grand Champion Bull and Heifer will be stalled on Supreme Row every day during the Classic. All Champions will compete in the Supreme Drive on Saturday evening.
2. Hours of display from 10 AM to 5 PM daily following breed sales. The responsibility of caring for the champion belongs to the consignors.
3. Judging for Supreme Row will be as follows: Judging will be done by three judges selected by the Nebraska Cattlemen's Classic and will remain anonymous until the selection of Supreme Champions. Judges will select the top four. Points will be given as follows:

First – 4, Second – 3, Third – 2, Fourth – 1. High point wins.

Tie breaker will be the highest placing on two ballots.
